We have a very active TrustPilot review page, are rated Excellent and have an average TrustScore of 4.8 out of 5. Here are just a couple of our reviews.

When she first called me about my inquiry, she was friendly and very helpful in understanding the course and the signing up process. After this she and I had a few follow calls and exchanged emails to get frequent progress reports about where I was at during my sign up. Overall she was very patient with me, very helpful and understanding at every point during our contact

Amelia is very professional, patient, ethical and supportive throughout my decision making process and also made me realize Course2Career would be a great experience because of how she handled every question and areas of doubt I had. Now I look forward to a great experience.

- Alexander Ehioghae
